RE: Docket No. FDA-2012-P-0379

Dear Miss Axelrad:

Thank you for your update letter of October 15, 2012. Can you tell me the questions that remain unanswered about my petition in policy, science, or law. The petition has no innovation, and copies the clozapine systems of England and Ireland. Any question requiring real world experience can probably be answered by the officials of those nations. I would try to retrieve any information that would move the petition forward.

Sincerely yours,

David Behar, M.D.
